

Quiz 3

Date: November 2, 2016

Total Marks: 10

Allowed time: 7 minutes

Encircle one correct option. Use a pen and do not overwrite or cut. No marks will be given if you choose more than one option.

Q1. The product scope is the features and functions that characterize a product, service, or result

True/False

Q2. The term WBS stands for work breakdown structure.

True/False

Q3. The lowest level of WBS components are called milestones.

True/False

Q4. Variance analysis is a technique for determining the cause and degree of difference between the baseline and actual performance

True/False

Q5. According to the 100 percent rule, the total of the work at the lowest levels of WBS should roll up to the higher levels so that nothing is left out and no extra is work is performed

True/False

Q6. Accepted deliverables are obtained from the Control Quality process and verified deliverables are obtained from the Validate Scope process

True/False

Q7. Rolling wave planning is an iterative planning technique in which the work to be accomplished in the near term is planned in detail, while the work in the future is planned at a higher level. True/False

Q8. Project schedule network diagram is an important output of define activities process.

True/False

Q9. Milestones have zero duration.

True/False

Q10. Precedence diagramming method is a technique used for sequencing activities process.

True/False