

Quiz 2

Date: 15th October 2016

Total Marks: 10

Encircle one correct option. Use a pen and do not overwrite or cut. No marks will be given if you choose more than one option.

Q1. A project charter documents how the project will be executed, monitored and controlled.

True/False

Q2. Project Integration Management processes include direct and manage project work.

True/False

Q3. Besides the project manager, the project management team can also provide expert judgment to direct and manage project work.

True/False

Q4. Project management plan includes subsidiary plans such as cost management plan.

True/False

Q5. Expert judgment and facilitation techniques are tools and techniques used to develop project charter.

True/False

Q6. To develop project charter a business case document is not required.

True/False

Q7. A change request may include a corrective action.

True/False

Q8. Cost-benefit analysis is a technique for developing project charter.

True/False

Q9. The following is an example of enterprise environmental factor: "All software and internet based businesses in Pakistan are exempt from income tax till 2016."

True/False

Q10. Historical information and lessons learned knowledge base are a part of organizational process assets that can influence the develop project management plan process.

True/False